

Between Garonne and Dordogne from castles to vineyards, Circuit N°21

1 Day 1 :

At the heart of one of the most famous vineyards in the world, Saint-Emilion a stopping point on the Saint-Jacques-de-Compostelle path possesses many remains from the past such as its monolithic church.

At the Grand Barrail castle you will enjoy refinement and a hearty welcome. You will start your itinerary on the clayey-limestone plateau amid the vineyards. From hills to hills you will arrive at Villefranche-de-Lonchat a pivotal city between the Saint-Emilion and Bergerac vintages. Further you will discover the remains of the Guron castle, the Roman façade of Carsac church or the Saint-Martin church with its Saintergeois style.

After having crossed the Isle valley you will reach the immense forests of la Double, scattered of ponds and full of game. Aubeterre one of the Most Beautiful Villages in France towers the Dronne valley and harbours an underground marvel, the monolithic church of Saint-Jean. Cross back the Dronne to find back la Double, the helmets with wooden-sided and cob houses, the Roman churches and the castles. Have a stop in Siorac for its fortified church, in Segonzac for the Martinie castle and the church from the XVth century and admire the Bellet castle built in the XVth century in the vicinity of Garennes pond.

You will reach the banks of l'Isle at Saint-Astier where the extraction of white stone allowed the construction of a church overlooked by a square church tower from the XVIth century. You will cross the Isle at Neuvic to visit the castle and its botanical park. Further you will find back the Sourzac castle.

Between Garonne and Dordogne from castles to vineyards, Circuit N°21

2 Day 2 :

A few yards from the Sourzac castle spend a romantic evening at the "Chaufourg in Périgord", a house surrounded by a majestic and secret park which overlooks l'Isle. You will reach the Crempse valley which makes its way in the heart of the Landais forest.

The Montréal castle appears after a bend on top of the hill with a curious half style mi-feudal and half-Renaissance style.

You will reach the hills of the Bergerac vineyards along the river Dordogne by travelling through the forests of pine and chestnut trees. You will find back the river at the former port in the old Bergerac where you will discover the Récollets cloister and the house Peyrardère which harbours the museum of tobacco.

When leaving the banks of the Dordogne river you will sink into a green tide and come across the Monbazillac castle standing out. From the ruins of the Malfourat mill you will realize the real stretch of this vineyard displaying shimmering colours in autumn.

After driving past the Bridoire, castle on the banks of the Gardonnette you will reach a multicolored landscape where fruit cultures and pasture alternate. The old village of Issigeac harbours a gothic church and a castle built by the bishops of Sarlat who used to spend their holidays .

before entering the narrow and twisted Lède valley you will arrive in front of the imposing fortress of the Biron castle. The six floor keep of Gavaudun stands at the end of the valley.
Before reaching the Scandaillac castle you will stroll through the side streets of Monflanquin walled town.

Between Garonne and Dordogne from castles to vineyards, Circuit N°21

3 Day 3 :

In a magnificent setting situated between Dordogne and Lot the Scandaillac castle a beautiful XIVth century cottage fully renovated will offer its extreme refinement.

From villages to helmets, from forests to ponds and from hills to views, you will approach the fertile plains of la Garonne.

Marmande lies at the heart of this immense garden with its famous tomato, tobacco and melon cultures. In the same way the Côtes of Marmandais the vineyards of which stretch on both banks of the river Garonne.

You will follow either the river or its side canal up to the Réole. Upon your arrival you will discover a superb view on the castle, the church and the former abbey.

Then you will travel towards the Drapt valley and its wild water which feeds picturesque mills.

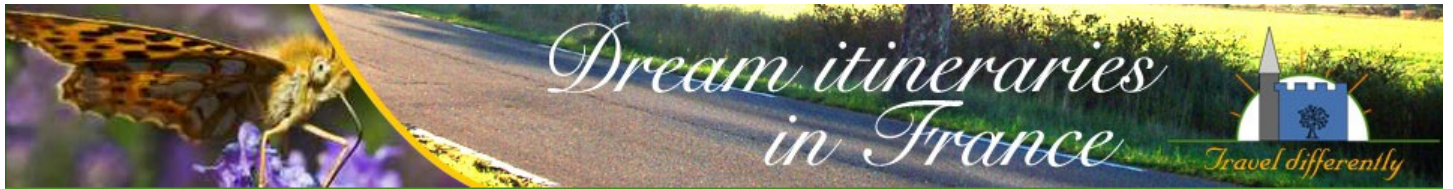

After the walled town of Sauveterre-de-Guyenne and its four fortified doors which allow the visitor to enter the traditional central square place surrounded by archways you will discover the former fortified Benedictine abbey of Blasimon at the bottom of a small valley.

You will find back Dordogne at the town of Castillon . This site reminds the battle which put an end to the English domination in this area.

Before reaching Saint-Emilion you will appreciate again the landscapes of the Bordelais vineyards where the Côtes de Castillon controlled label was born in 1989.
