Quercy and black Périgord marvels, Circuit N°22

1 Day 1 :

At the heart of a more than 100 hectare park the Fleurie castle provides the stay with quietness and change of scenery. You will start this itinerary in Black Périgord Noir by travelling along the Vézère up to Terrasson-la-Villedieu.

At the Roche you will discover the Causse lake which is also called Chasteaux lake. You will follow it until Lissac which towers the Couze valley. After having crossed a panorama of verdant hills the Renaissance castle and the Roman church of Noailles will appear.

Go past the Lamouroux caves to reach the Tourmente valley. The road rises at the heart of the Corrèzian Causse towards the former viscount estate which commanded, the Haut-Quercy, the Salardais and a part of the Bas-Limousin in the XVth century.

From the ruins of the castle perched on the hill where the village of Turenne is hanged take time to admire the le superb panorama extended up to Collonges-la-Rouge.

Drive towards the Dordogne valley. From the top of their rocky spur the three castles of Curemonte watch the Causse of Martel, the Black Périgord and the southern Corrèzian area that you will leave after a last glance to this majestic panorama from the top of the tower at Quessac-les-Vignes castle.

After having crossed Dordogne you will reach the Quercinois landscapes. As you will travel up the Dordogne flow then the Cère one you will discover the majestic outline of the medieval castle of Castelnau-Bretenoux. Before arriving in Rocamadour you will travel in the vicinity of the Padirac abyss, one of the marvels in this itinerary.

Quercy and black Périgord marvels, Circuit N°22

2 Day 2 :

After a night in full nature at the « Vieilles Tours » a XVIIIth century manor house you will attend a unique show. In the sunrise and with the stare of the dragon and the seven sanctuaries, the closely gathered old houses awake and vanish into the ochre colors of the cliffs.

As a major site of the medieval Christendom do not miss the visit of the religious city which has become one of the most important stopping point on Saint-Jacques-de-Compostelle path.

You will resume your travel through the Causse of Gramat where you will visit the Lacave caves. At the confluence of the Ouyse and the Dordogne rivers you will discover the Belcastel castle towering the valley from its rocky spur. Travel up the Dordogne river up to the Creysse bridge and its old houses which nestle at the foot of a spur sheltering a XVth century castle and its XIIth century Roman chapel.

You will leave the Dordogne valley to reach one of the Haut-Quercy Causses and you will discover the legendary city where Charles Martel defeated for good the Arabs further to the Poitiers battle. You will travel back to Souillac so that you will follow the Dordogne flows in the direction of the Black Périgord .

Before reaching the Salardais area you will be impressed by the walled town of Domme perched on a cliff where you will discover the patchwork of the canoe colours which sail on the river. While enjoying the end of afternoon sun which lights up the high grey cliff you will admire the Roque-Gageac site.

Quercy and black Périgord marvels, Circuit N°22

3 Day 3 :

The Relais de Moussidière surrounded by its landscaped garden will offer the traveller all the quietness from Périgord. The Gothic or Renaissance hotels stand all along the medieval side streets in the town-museum of Sarlat. In the same way discover Beynac-et-Cazenac, listed among the Most beautiful Villages in France.

On the other side of the river Dordogne you will climb to the Castelnaud castle. From the top of its keep you will discover an admirable site as well a view over the path which will lead you to the Fayrac and the Milandes castles .

Cross back the river Dordogne to approach the hills of the Causse. In their middle you will discover Saint-Cyprien, its castle and its Gothic church. The road winds its way from forests to hills before arriving in the Vèze valley. The castle and the Roman church of Campagne will provide the traveller with an overview among the marvels you will find in this valley.

The Eyzies-de-Tayac is a door to Prehistory, besides its cliffs have revealed their secret. A whole day would not be sufficient to travel back the time in order to meet the Neandertal or the Cro-Magnon man.

You will travel back to the Middle Ages in the outstanding site of the Commarque castle the ruins of which are being restored.

After a visit of the prehistoric Moustier shelter do not forget to admire one of the most beautiful Roman church in Périgord at Saint-Léon-sur-Vézère. At Lascaux even though the visited grotto is only a replica of the original cave you will feel the whole emotion of our civilization discovery.
