

Treasures of the flowered coast and the Seine valley
Circuit N°39

The flowered coast displays above all outstanding sea side towns. You will start from the most typical among them : Honfleur.

After having left this coast you will discover the Seine valley with its landscapes and its heritage richness.

The travel book recommend the number of minimum days which can be devoted to the itinerary.

Ports full of charm (Barfleur, Honfleur), smart sea-resorts (Cabourg, Deauville, Granville), outstanding Mont Saint Michel, cliffs in Pays de Caux, Cotentin polders, the fresh and hilly bocages of the Norman countryside invite the visitor to discover this region offering a rich and savoury cuisine .

What to discover : The Orne castles (Carrouges, Bourg St Leonard, Sassy), the national stud farm of Pin, Argentan racecourse, the museum of Tapestry in Bayeux, the Memorial of Caen or the Landing Museum in Arromanches, Etretat and its cliffs, the historical and artistic heritage of Honfleur, the fine sand beach of Trouville, Rouen and its outstanding heritage.

Wines : wine of Calvados region

Local Produce/Gastronomy : apples, butter, salted-meadow lamb, cheeses (camembert, livarot, Pont l'Evêque, Brillat-Savarin, Neufchatel), oysters, shell fish, chitterling sausages of Vire, cider from Pays d'Auge, poiré, pommeau, calvados, Bénédictine, fudges from Isigny.

Traditional Handicraft : laces of Alençon, umbrellas from Cherbourg, Dinanderie (making of copper appliances), Pottery of Etain, Bells Foundry in Villedieu les Poêles).

Treasures of the flowered coast and the Seine valley, Circuit N°39

1 Day 1 :

Honfleur has inspired the painters, the writers and the musicians. There you will amble in the old town with its streets lined with half timbered houses and you will taste a bowlful of cider in on the old harbour facing the tower of Sainte-Catherine church.

In the evening you will rest in the Manoir of Butin nestled at the heart of a 2 hectare park a XVIII th century home overlooking the Seine estuary. This itinerary follows the Grâce Coast then the Norman corniche at the heart of a lavish vegetation.

The Trouville landscapes have attracted numerous painters. Nearby Deauville and its boards, the image of which is inextricably linked to Claude Lelouch's film « Un homme et une femme ».

All along the Côte Fleurie the sea side resorts follow one another. You will discover an outstanding panorama between Villers-sur-Mer and Houlgate as well as the Houlgate cottages, witnesses of the sea side architecture from the end of the XIX th century.

After having travelled along the Dives estuary you will reach the swamp road at the level of the Cricqueville-en-Auge Renaissance castle. Its checkered façade of stones and bricks remains typically Norman.

On the Lisieux road you will distinguish the delightful village of Beuvron-en-Auge and its half timbered houses, the chapel of Clermont which overlooks the pays d'Auge bocage and the former Cistercian abbey of Val Richer.

Thérèse Martin did affirm her faith in the very valley of Touques. Her canonization launched the Lisieux fame.

You will follow the Calonne valley to reach the apple tree circuit at on the banks of the Risle.

Treasures of the flowered coast and the Seine valley, Circuit N°39

2 Day 2 :

Pont-Audemer is crossed by canals lined with the former tanner drying-sheds as well as half-timbered houses.

You will find your refuge in a beautiful island amidst this "small Norman Venice". Belle Isle upon Risle is a superb cottage in a 2 hectare park surrounded by the Risle waters.

After having crossed the river, you will tour the apple tree land, the bocage which lines the Marais-Vernier where Camargais horses and Scot cows can be seen.

At Sainte-Opportune you will have the opportunity to visit the eco-museum devoted to this land, producer of apples.

Further to a detour at the Bourneville trade house travel back to the Seine banks along a road lined with typical thatched houses and their large yards dotted with fruit trees.

In the vicinity of Mailleraye, a view enables the visitor to discover the Seine valley and the towers of the Jumièges abbey and its ruins set in a verdant case.

You will follow the road of the Abbeys which runs around the animation base of Mesnil-sous-Jumièges in order to reach Duclair, then Saint-Martin-de-Boscherville where you will discover the magnificent Benedictine abbey church of Saint-Georges church.

You will leave the Seine banks to encounter the Roumare forest in the direction of Barentin. There you will discover several contemporary sculptors' pieces, then you will continue up to Yvetot on the edge of "the pays de Caux", the itinerary stopover.

Treasures of the flowered coast and the Seine valley, Circuit N°39

3 Day 3 :

At the heart of “the pays de Caux” a XVII th century manor house in the purest Norman style will provide the opportunity to recharge your energy.

You will resume your journey by crossing the Caux plateau in the direction of the Seine valley that you will cross at Saint-Wandrille-Rançon.

When facing the Breton forest which stretches beyond the river you will discover one of the Benedictine art jewels which bloomed in Normandy during the XI th century. Some nave archways and a remarkable cloister which can be visited are still left from the XIV th century abbey church.

Beyond the Brotonne bridge you will distinguish the spire of Notre-Dame de Caudebec-en-Caux church a flamboyant building from the XVth century.

you will find back the banks of the Seine to reach Villequier, where Léopoldine Hugo drowned with her husband. In the family house of Vacqueries an open museum recalls this event.

You will discover the Gallo-Roman remains of Lillebonne. The Ist century theatre-amphitheatre is one of the most preserved monuments in the whole Northern Gaul. The Tancarville bridge is a technical wizardry with two 125 metre high pylons supporting a suspended apron at 48 metres.

You will reach the apple tree Road Route at the Roque headland which offers an outstanding view over the Seine estuary and over the Normandy bridge. After La-Rivière-Saint-Sauveur you will find back the colored atmosphere of the old Honfleur so that you will savor a bowlful of cider on the quays, your itinerary starting point.
