Week-end in Beaujolais, Circuit N°7

1 Day 1 :

During this week end at the heart of the Beaujolais hills, you will stay in a genuine medieval building rebuilt in the XVIIIth century which links charm, comfort and authenticity.

As soon as you will leave the Chervings Castle you will meet a road of the crests which overlook the Saône valley and it will lead you to Marcy.

You will be ready to drive up to the tower Chappe where you will admire an outstanding view over la Dombe, the Mounts of Lyonnais and the Beaujolais valley.

A town with its fortifications towering over l'Azergues stands up at the bend in the road of the crests.

In Chazay d'Azergues you will come across a belfry and some XVth and XVIth century houses.

A few miles away, you will discover the high gothic style church of Chessy, then the XVth century castle of Bagnols.

The Nizy door, a remain of the formidable Oingt stronghold appears at the end of the road.

Further you will follow a very scenic road which crosses the Chêne Pass. Farms, pastures and views follow each other.

From Chambot-Allières the drive down to Villefranche will lead you up to the Chevings Castle, which offers a splendid view over the Saône valley.

2 Day 2 :

All along this itinerary you will follow a road which winds its way across the most famous vineyards of Beaujolais, driving up the hills covered with vineyards then driving down towards the verdant Saône valley.

You will travel through charming winegrower villages which keep the print of their history such as Saint-Julien : the scholar Claude Bernard's hometown, Salles-Arbuissonnas-en-Beaujolais which has kept some buildings of a priory church founded in the Xth century, and according to the legend the Arigny castle in Charentay would shelter the Templars' treasure.

After Saint-Lager, you will drive around Mount Brouilly on the slopes of which the famous Côtes de Brouilly vintage is collected.

Then you will reach the crests along a succession of passes and peaks where superb landscapes can be admired.

At the foot of Mount Soubrant, at the pass of la Croix de Marchampt an outstanding view overlooks the whole area.

You will gradually drive down towards the Saône valley by travelling along roads which cross typical landscapes of Beaujolais.
